Re Dubs Death
Dubs 2/18/79

Ambassador Dubs

At Andrews Air Force Base there will be the following ceremonies after the plane arrives at 12:20pm, Sunday

-- As the casket is brought off the aircraft and taken to the hearse, there will be four ruffles and flourishes played followed by the national anthem and a nineteen gun salute. There will be remarks delivered we understand.

-- At Andrews there will be a large press area with all the standard facilities.

-- The casket will be then taken to the chapel under the amphitheater at Arlington where it will lie in repose (closed) with a joint guard of honor present. The chapel will be open to the public from 8 to 5 daily.

-- Tuesday morning the casket will be brought to Memorial Chapel at Fort Meyer, leaving Arlington National Cemetary at about 9 o"clock.

-- The chapel service begins at 10 and runs approximately one hour.

-- The press will be permitted inside Memorial Chapel but movement will be restricted and no lights permitted.

-- After the memorial service the casket will be placed on a cassion and taken to Arlington National Cemetary for burial. There will be a press area at the Cemetary. We understand except for the press attendence at the gravesite is to be by invitation only.

-- The person in charge of press operations is Captain Altman (693-1161/2) and the person in charge of ceremonies is Captain Olson (981-4511/2).
